Our Mission: To equip God's people for ministry with a vision to share God's Word

“Let’s Not Be Waterbed Christians”

Have you ever noticed the difference between a waterbed and a bed with a mattress? On the waterbed, no matter how much it’s slept on, no impression is left. On the bed with the mattress, the more it’s slept on, the greater the impression.

People’s lives are like that. Some lives are lived and leave no impression; like a finger pulled from a glass of water, the water closes behind it and no one could ever know that the finger had ever been there.

Then there are those lives that are lived out with faith and determination, love and commitment to Christ. Those lives impact the lives of those around them in profound ways.

There are those whose positive impressions last for decades even centuries. And when you stop and think about it, there are only a few whose impressions (for good or for evil) have not erased from the world scene (Socrates, Michaelangelo, Hitler, Edison, Luther, to name a few).

Only one man has left an eternal impression: our Lord, Jesus Christ. When all is over and done, only one name will be above all names – the name of Jesus Christ.

This is the same Jesus Christ who lives inside of you and me. Together we are called to make an impression on our world, starting with our own families, then our neighbors, co-workers, and friends. Jesus tells us that those who follow him are “salt,” “light,” and “leaven,” in the world. That is – they leave an impression.

How thankful I am as your pastor to have so many faithful people in our family of faith who have already made powerful impressions on me. It’s one of the great joys of ministry here with you! What a joy to share in the powerful, grace-filled impressions the ministries of this parish make on so many in our community.

Faith is meant to be lived out and shared in personal and intimate ways. With the power of the Holy Spirit at work in and through our lives, other lives are changed and impressed by the very presence of Christ himself.

We don’t want to be waterbed Christians! We gather around God’s Word and Sacrament to let his grace, his wisdom, and his strength make a powerful impression on us so that we too then, can go out into the world in word and deed to have an impact on a dying world.

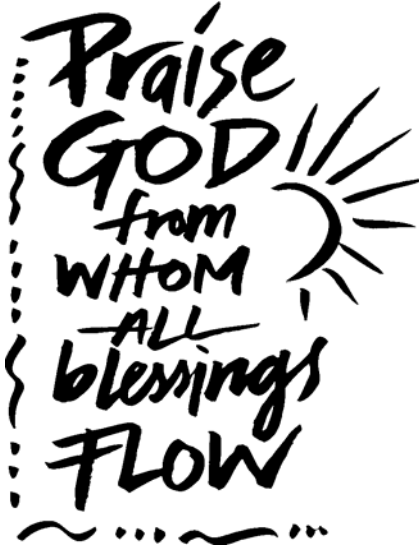

May God continue to work in and through us all so that we might continue to make an impression on the world with the outstanding, everlasting love of Christ!

Always in Christ,
Pastor Bill Qualman

“I always thank God for you because of his grace given you in Christ Jesus. For in him you have been enriched in every way—in all your speaking and in all your knowledge—because our testimony about Christ was confirmed in you. Therefore you do not lack any spiritual gift as you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed. He will keep you strong to the end, so that you will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God, who has called you into fellowship with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.” (1 Cor. 1:4-9)

As things begin to slow down over the summer, I tend to reflect over the past year at Good Shepherd. What a year it has been. I can't reflect on the year without stopping to say Thank You! I know that I have said it before, but there is nowhere I would rather be than in ministry with all of you here in Old Bridge. All of you are so very eager and willing to share the gifts God has given you.

As I spend time with those from other congregations, it never ceases to amaze me that what we consider obstacles and problems are nothing compared to what other congregations are experiencing. Why is that? The answer is simple, it is all about YOU. God has blessed this congregation with people who are willing and able to share of their gifts. Many of you stepped up over the vacancy period and offered to do things that you may never have considered doing before. Ministries continued to thrive while new ministries began. Now as we begin a new phase, with a new Pastor, you still continue to share your God-given gifts.

But as things change, so do our passions and direction. We must continue to look outside the walls of Good Shepherd to see what new and exciting ministries lay ahead. Those of you that may not have known how to use your gifts may now find ways to use them. The new road ahead is exciting, but sometimes unsure because we don't know what to expect. But what does that matter? God has promised his direction and guidance. He continues to bless us richly.

His greatest blessing has been the people He has led to Good Shepherd. There are too many of you to name from those who maintain the building and prepare the Altar each week to those who teach us and our children to those who enhance our worship and to those who welcome each other with a warm greeting and cup of coffee. Your gifts come in a variety of forms and are used in a variety of ways. To all of you I say THANK YOU! I thank God every day for those He has led to this church for ministry. I pray for God's continued guidance and encouragement of His people as we look forward to new ways of doing ministry together with the gifts He has provided each of us.

I am writing this article, actually typing, on the first day of summer. For many this might be the period that things tend to slow down and that is true for the church office as well. July and August are the months when we start to look at the programs and ministries and evaluate them. Questions are asked like: are changes needed to be made in the material used, or are new individuals needed to replace those needing a break or moving on, does the training need to be updated, and are new goals needed. These are just some of the questions. First up for consideration is the Confirmation System. Pastor and I are looking at the material, and then the process will be evaluated to determine whether changes are needed. So you see through this example that while things do slow down a bit, the church staff is very busy preparing for the September start-up. We ask for your prayers that we might have the wisdom to listen for the Holy Spirit's guidance as we prepare for His work at Good Shepherd.

Your Co-worker for Christ,

Thank a B&G Volunteer today!

Yes, this month is the official "Thank a Building & Grounds Volunteer" month. No, you won't find it listed on Hallmark's calendar, but if you happen to see one of the following people, be certain to give them a hearty thank you for the work they have been doing this spring, either helping at our work day events, mowing, helping spruce up the grounds in a variety of other ways, or as a member of the B&G committee (marked with ^{B&G}):

Lilly Battle, Jeff Campbell, Linda Cinquagrana, Kathy Cole, Gene Clapsis, Abby Eaton, Leslie

Green, Sonya Hansen, Joe Kotora Jr., Barry Larkin, Lyman Laub^{B&G}, Alma Meyer, Tim O'Connor^{B&G}, Dean Olson, Chris Parker^{B&G}, Stephanie Pate, Katerina Pate, Kevin Prenderville, Maureen Puricelli^{B&G}, Lauren Puricelli, Randi Rutan, Tom Rutan, Dave Schulmeister^{B&G}, Ed Siclari^{B&G}, Bob Shipley, Sandy Shipley, Bobby Shipley, Jim Toth, Grace Wong, Caty Wong.

Thank you, all!

Around The Parish

From the Alleys

Sounds of fellowship, conversation, laughter, sighs of contentment, moans of being stuffed, the food was delicious and plentiful, the company wonderful. Another successful bowling banquet! Oh, I guess you want to know who got which awards. Well since you didn't join us, I'll fill you in on that info. As you know from last month, the Wayniacs (Wayne and his daughter, Beth, Krawiec and Vin Stefanelli) won 1st place, with the 3 Mugs (Ron and Doreen Humiston, and Beth Meyer) capturing 2nd place. 3rd place went to Perfect 10 (Paul and Cathy Jordan, and Ken/Rob Magazzu). And let's not forget last place (we did have to win at least 2 games to get it) the HoHums (Bill and Laurie Burke, and Julio Artache).

And now for the individual awards--- drum roll please – most improved bowlers went to Paul Jordan (12.70) and Cathy Jordan (21.82). Wayne Krawiec maintained high average (195), along with Carol Hahl (162).

For High Series and High Game, a trophy and county award go to the same person. Don Cousens's 694 took high series and Bob Hahl's 267 took high game. For the women, Mary Artache's 531 earned her the high series trophy, with Carol Hahl's 558 giving her the county award. And Brigitte Meitzner's 215 was good enough for the high game trophy, with Carol Hahl's 224 receiving the county award.

With bowlers moving, or deciding to become subs because of other commitments, you can be part of this fellowship and get a great dinner.

Just ask any of the league officers- Carol Hahl- Secretary, Sandy Shipley- Treasurer, Bob Shipley- vice-president, and Laurie Burke-president. (And Bob, good job on the bowling banquet!)

Earlier in the month of June, Ronald McDonald came to pay a visit to the students. He read them stories and performed magic tricks. They really enjoyed the time they had with him.

Kindergarten classes went to Jenkinsons at Point Pleasant

Beach for their end of the year class trip. The weather held up for them and they had an awesome time, they came back with bags of seashells they found on the beach and big smiles on their faces. Another school year comes to an end. Graduations went beautifully; the kids sang their hearts out, accepted their diplomas, and are ready to enjoy the summer months. The next two days will be filled with end of the year parties and saying goodbye. I wish our kindergarten students much success and many new friends in their new schools in September. We will miss them very much. I would like to thank the staff for yet another great year. It's not easy doing what they do every day. Lastly, I would like to congratulate Karen Gnudi who celebrates 10 years at Good Shepherd this year, and Laurie Burke who will be celebrating 25 years with Good Shepherd Children's Center. Thank you both for your hard work and dedication to the school and the children you teach.

GROTH REPORT

When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him . . . Luke 24:31-32

It was time to leave Battambang, and our driver needed to leave early in the morning. In order to have a good start we invited him to have breakfast with us. Before the first bite Chuck, Vannock, and I bowed our heads and said our before meal prayer: "Come Lord Jesus, be our guest, and let this food to us be blessed. Amen." That prayer was not a major faith testimony, but still our guest replied, "Oh, I see you are Christian."

I've thought about that a lot this month. I've always loved the fact that Jesus opened his disciples' eyes as they shared a meal together. That simple act helped them to recognize their risen Lord. What simple acts will others recognize as unique, so that we will be recognized as Christians? What can we do to gain a hearing for the Gospel message?

Here in Southeast Asia many times it is that relationship, that action that stands out, that gives us an opportunity to share Jesus. Perhaps Southeast Asia isn't so different than the place you live. Who has recognized you as a Christian lately? What conscious actions can be part of your life so that you to will have the chance to be Ablaze with the message of Christ's love and forgiveness? Examine your actions. Share with others stories of the opportunities you've had to spread the Word. Plan now the actions that will help others to recognize just who you are!!

One important action for us is traveling to the Lutheran Church in Battambang, the second largest city in Cambodia and located in the western part of the country. This church has a young pastor, and part of Chuck's work is mentoring him on a regular basis. He is eager to learn and asked this time about how to have an order of worship that was distinctly Lutheran. Naturally Chuck was delighted to spend time to share with him and other church leaders some order for Lutheran worship. The worship there is lively with children, youth, and adult groups all taking turns to share a song. The praise group leads worship and witnesses with uplifting music. This time Chuck had the message, and our worship together was a moving experience. My work there is helping the English teachers and the Bible teacher work on ideas to improve their teaching. It was exciting to see three of the English teachers come to be part of Sunday's service. I know that it was out of respect for my being there, but I also know the power of the Spirit and how God's Word can work on hearts. I am always delighted to model teaching, and it was reaffirming to see the teachers using some of the ideas we worked on immediately. English as a second language is a big way that we make relationships and have opportunities to share the Gospel in this part of the country. This English School has a Bible component and so a teacher shares that important message as well.

This month also saw us traveling to Vietnam. Here the actions of Christian example and relationship building are critical. The country is so beautiful with green rice fields, peaked hats on field workers, water buffalo and oxen, as well as beautiful blue hillsides. It was wonderful to have the opportunity as part of my job to visit volunteers there. Their English teaching is so important!! We also traveled with a local nutritionist to villages to see the LCMS human health care project. What he was doing that day was weighing babies to check nutritional progress using the improved diet he has been teaching. Needless to say, the babies were beautiful. A couple even let me hold them, and their smiles are truly heart-warming. We saw an LCMS kindergarten where we were privileged to watch a great performance!! Another part of our visit there saw us visiting a family who had received a cow through an agricultural project. The addition of one cow made so much difference in the well being of this family. This is your church in action!!!

Next we spent time in Thailand. We are part of the developing Luther Institute of Southeast Asia (LISA) Working with this we were collecting data about just what training would best prepare a person to be a Christian leader here. The first discussions were in Bangkok. Then we traveled with a local leader to the Phuket area where the tsunami had hit. The countryside was beautiful. We had a wonderful discussion about the educational needs of church leaders and also had an opportunity to see much of the rebuilding taking place there. It is hard to believe the destruction caused there or the number of containers that once held stacks of bodies. The relief actions surely gave many Christians an opportunity to share and speak of a caring Savior who is always there even in the darkest times.

I spent three quick days in Hong Kong learning more about my job as Volunteer Coordinator. I know it will be challenging work as we are committed to sharing Jesus through these teams as part of a strategic plan to use this opportunity to reach the 100 million people with Christ before 2017.

This week Chuck is doing a workshop for Christian Leaders here in Phnom Penh. They are learning about the church year and hearing the way the message of the Gospel is shared through that cycle of readings. There are about fifty-five leaders in attendance. These leaders are part of churches throughout Cambodia, presenting another real opportunity to share Jesus through the action of teaching.

Take a moment and evaluate your Christian witness. What actions lately have given you the opportunity to speak a word of salvation through Jesus Christ? We'd love to hear your stories!! May the Spirit continue to move you to walk and talk the message of Jesus our Savior.

Peace and love - Chuck and Jeanette Groth

IS THE CHURCH COSTING TOO MUCH?

Think of us in this way,
as servants of Christ and stewards of God's mysteries.

Last Sunday, another golfer sank the last putt on the last green and received a check for One Million Dollars for four rounds of golf, plus an automobile for himself and one for his wife.

This week, the papers reported that a certain popular singer will receive Three Million Dollars per week for her current singing engagement.

Americans spend annually more on dog food than on church contributions. It is not unusual for an individual to pay more for his country club membership than he gives to the church.

Is the church costing too much?

Let me share an experience with you. On June 2, 1940, a little girl was born to us. She cost us money from the moment she was born.

As she grew from babyhood to girlhood, she cost even more — her dresses and shoes were more expensive, and we had to have the doctor through all those childhood diseases.

She was even more expensive during her school and teen years. She needed long dresses to go to parties.

When she went to college we discovered, along with other parents, that all college expenses are not listed in the catalog.

Then after graduation, she fell in love and married. She was married in a church wedding and that, too, cost a lot of money.

Then, five months after her marriage, she suddenly sickened and within a week she was dead. She hasn't cost us a penny since the day we walked away from her grave.

As long as the church is alive, she will cost money. And the more alive a church is, the more money she will cost. Only a dead church, like a dead child, is no longer expensive.

Think it over. Is the church costing too much?

COMMENTS ON LIVELY CHURCHES

A lively church has parking problems; a dead church doesn't.

A lively church has lots of 'noisy' children and young people; a dead church is fairly quiet.

A lively church often changes the way things are done; a dead church doesn't have to.

A lively church often asks for more program and mission money; a dead church has plenty of money for what it does.

A lively church asks people to open up and risk involvement; a dead church plays it safe and never risks.

A lively church sees challenges and opportunities; a dead church sees problems and dangers.

A lively church apologizes, forgives and seeks forgiveness; a dead church never makes mistakes.

A lively church uses its tradition and facilities to serve people; a dead church uses people to preserve facilities and traditions.

A lively church believes in God's future and "lets go" with faith; a dead church believes in the past and "holds on."

A lively church is filled with committed givers; a dead church is filled with tippers.

A lively church dares to dream great dreams for God's Kingdom; a dead church has nightmares. Now then, what about our church?
