GOOD MORNING! We thank God for this time together! We pray that the grace of God will heal your hurts; that the strength of God will give you courage to face the work before you; that the power of God will prepare your way; and that the peace of God will keep you secure and steady in Christ Jesus.

JANUARY PRAYER PETITION: "Dear Lord, As Jesus the Light of the world came to disperse the darkness, let us not be afraid to share His light with all those we meet. Amen."

Special Prayer Request from the Johnson's: On January 11th, 2008 at Boston Children's Hospital, Jake was operated on to change his two-chambered heart into a four-chambered heart. This is a very delicate heart operation and Georgeann and I will be with our son Dave, his wife JoEllen and our grand-daughter Josie Ann as Jake undergoes this operation. Please, as you have in the past, offer up to our Lord your prayers for the surgeons and for Jake. We will keep you informed as best we can. During the operation they will also move his aorta to the other side of his heart for better circulation. He will be the first to have this operation with his other complication of no spleen. The Lord has always held Jake in His arms and we pray that He will continue to hold him and grant him a successful surgery and recovery. Thank you in advance for your prayers and your continued concern – Johnson Family. A care page has been started for Jake. You can visit Jake's CaringBridge to keep track of his progress. The web site is: www.caringbridge.org/visit/jakejohnson.

Stewardship Corner: Twice in Psalm 24, the gates are commanded to lift up their heads. Why? So that the King of Glory may come in. During this Advent Season, we are reminded of just who it was who came to Earth, born of a woman in a lowly stable. He is the King of Glory! He is the One we honor and proclaim! He is the One due our allegiance and our service. Open your gates! Let the King of Glory come in!
