

The Family of God Together
March 16, 2008

GOOD MORNING! It is most certainly true that God comes to us where we live. He loves us as we are. Our hearts are His birthplace, our lives are His home. In this hour may your life be filled with His peace as we worship Him together.

IF YOU ARE A VISITOR with us we extend a warm welcome to you and invite you to worship with us again next week and participate in our church life outlined in our monthly newsletter, The Staff, which can be found in the Narthex on the table. Please take the time to fill out a Visitor form which can be found by the Visitor's book or ask the Usher for one, and place the completed form in the offering plate. After passing through the greeting line, please honor us by signing the visitor's book.

Who among us likes sacrifice? Do we not seek to please ourselves, to spare ourselves, to shield ourselves and those we love from pain or disappointment or failure? Unlike us, “Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things . . . Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.” Peter loved his Lord; He didn’t want Him to suffer. Our answer to the temptation to self-centeredness should echo Jesus’ answer to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan . . . You do not have in mind the things of God, but the things of men” (Matthew 16:21-23).
